WELCOME

On behalf of the Organizing Committee I am pleased to welcome sponsors and exhibitors to participate in the 37th Biennial Congress of the Nordic Society of Nephrology (NSN2023) in Reykjavik from September 13th – 16th 2023. The Icelandic Society of Nephrology will host the NSN2023. The congress will be held in the Harpa Concert hall and Conference Center in central Reykjavik.

The NSN2023 scientific program will include a broad range of topics in the field of nephrology. Lectures will be delivered by leading Nordic and international experts. In addition, submitted scientific posters will be presented and we also offer a pre-symposium (on the 13th).

This meeting attracts nephrologists, researchers and PhD students from all the Nordic countries as well as many other European countries.

For sponsors we offer exhibition spaces, advertisements and the possibilities to host industry symposia. The Concert Hall provides companies with abundant space for demonstrating their products and services. The area used for display of scientific posters and food services will bring the participants in direct contact with the exhibition stands.

Several sponsorship opportunities are available. For more information please visit the congress website (www.nsn2023.is). You can also contact the conference organizer at kristjana@athygliradstefnur.is.

We look forward to welcoming you to Reykjavik in 2023.

On behalf of the organizing committee

Dr Sunna Snaedal, congress president
